

BY TELEGRAPH
TO THE FREEMAN.

8 O'CLOCK, A. M.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.
The following order was issued to-day from the Adjutant General's Office:

Supplies furnished by particular States for the volunteers in the service of the United States will be turned over to the proper Staff Department of the army, and issued according to law, and they were specially intended, but as such supplies will eventually be charged to the United States, any that may remain in excess of the regulation allowances may, when so directed by the General Commanding, be issued to any other troops in the service of the United States standing in need of them.

For the information of many persons who are at a great sacrifice of time, money and personal comfort to Washington, for the purpose of visiting their relatives in the army, on the Virginia side of the Potomac, it is proper to state that, as Gen. McClelland considers such visits inconsistent with the good of the soldiers, as well as prejudicial to the success of the army generally, he has by positive orders refused passes. No passes are granted excepting in extreme cases where it is positively necessary.

Capt. Thomas J. Wood and Lieut. Col. Richard W. Johnson, both of Kentucky, and attached to the U. S. Army were to-day appointed Brigadier Generals of volunteers, and assigned to commands under Maj. Gen. Sherman in that State. Capt. Averill of the U. S. mounted rifles has been assigned to the command of Young's Kentucky, now called, Pennsylvania Cavalry.

Baron Von Gerssack of Sweden has been appointed an aid to Major General Wool. There is no change in the position of Gen. Smith's division, except that he has removed his headquarters to Smith's house, one and half miles from Lewisville. Gen. McClelland's headquarters are at the tavern at Langley, and his division occupies the line of the Little Rock turnpike to Prospect Hill. There are but few soldiers in Lewisville, and these were deserted on the day our forces advanced to that village.

Our skirmishers surprised a cavalry picket guard at the Cross Roads and succeeded in killing two of them. Captain Barker, of the McClelland dragoons, has been promoted to a Major, and authorized to increase his company to a squadron. The Rebel Cavalry pickets made their appearance this morning about a mile from Lewisville and Falls Church but soon retreated. Our pickets stationed near Prospect Hill were driven in last night by the rebels in force, their object being doubtless to ascertain the position of our advance.

New York, Oct. 11. The Charleston Mercury of the 24th inst. says: "Late on the evening of the 23rd, the blockading ship Vandallia having a gunboat nearer than usual to the harbor entrance, both forts opened fire upon her. For some time she replied with spirit, but the distance was very great, the firing soon ceased, and the vessel soon retired beyond range."

The Cotton Crop—A Supply from Egypt, New York, Oct. 11. The Times' Washington dispatch says accounts received by the Government, deemed reliable, represent the cotton crop as about the average yield. Much of it has been successfully housed, but owing to a want of bagging it cannot be baled or transported.

Our Consul General writes that the British Government is drawing extraordinary supplies from Egypt, a new commercial treaty lately negotiated giving the British additional facilities in exporting cotton.

The Rebel pickets had withdrawn from Great Falls Wednesday morning.

Good News From Kentucky—Defeat of the Rebels. Cincinnati, Oct. 11. A special dispatch from Indianapolis to the Commercial says, the news from Kentucky is encouraging. Our forces are constantly increasing, and the rebels are growing discouraged. Many of Buckner's men are without arms and shoes and only a few are uniformed. Enlisting is progressing rapidly, the Kentuckians coming up to the work manfully.

The Commercial's Flemingsburg, Ky., correspondent says a messenger from Hillsboro arrived, and states that a company of rebels 300 strong, under the command of Capt. Halliday, were on the way to burning that place, and then attacking Flemingsburg. Lieut. Sadler and Sergeant Dudley were dispatched with fifty-eight Home Guards to intercept them. Guernsey returned two miles beyond Hillsboro, encamped in a barn. Our men opened fire upon them, sending them to fly in all directions.

The engagement lasted about twenty minutes, in which the rebels lost 11 killed, 27 wounded and 22 prisoners. We captured 127 Enfield rifles, a large number of sabres, pistols, bowie knives and cavalry accoutrements. Our loss was three killed and two wounded.

From Missouri—Serious Disturbance—McCulloch Still in the Field.

Jefferson City, Mo., Oct. 10.—Lieut. Col. Brown of the 7th regiment, Provost Marshal of the State, shot a private of the Missouri 6th this morning.

The Colonel ordered the man to lay down some boards he was tearing from a fence, and upon his refusing shot and killed him instantly. The affair created a great deal of excitement. The 21st and 6th Missouri regiments rushed to arms, demanding that Brown be delivered up to them. A park of artillery was drawn up in front of the Provost Marshal's office, and Col. Brown was threatening to fire upon the militiamen when the train left.

A scout has just arrived from Springfield and reported at headquarters that there were only 1000 rebels there. Ben McCulloch was at Camp Jackson with only 150 men, waiting reinforcements from Arkansas. Large numbers of McCulloch's force were with Price at Lexington, and the rest were with Hardee. McCulloch is expected to join Price at Lac River about the 20th, and the combined forces expect to march on Jefferson City. The foregoing is believed to be entirely reliable.

DARNESTOWN, Oct. 9. Several movements of regiments have transpired within the past few days, and it is the impression that other movements are in contemplation. Everything however connected with Banks and Stone's divisions are conducted with the utmost secrecy. During the excitement of pitching tents, getting supper, and a heavy storm on Monday evening, a graceless scoundrel smuggled into the lines of the Connecticut 5th, a hoghead of liquor, the result of which was that a citizen was killed, two or three wounded, and several horses and cattle shot. Gen. Banks issued an order immediately to destroy all the liquor found within the lines of our pickets, and to arrest all sellers.

GALLIOPOLIS, Oct. 11. The steamer Ibeta loaded with Government property left here this morning, destined for camp Engart on the Kanawa river, and when opposite Red House Shoals, which are thirty miles above Point Pleasant was fired into by one hundred Rebel Cavalry from the south bank of the river, and ordered to land.

The Captain however succeeded in towing the boat down the stream, and reached here this afternoon. Balls passed through the pilot-house, cabin and engine room, but no person was injured. Reports are rife that a large body of Rebels are advancing toward the river, to cut off Gen. Rosecranz's supplies.

The Indiana Regiment lost their tents, provisions, many knapsacks, &c. Col. Brown puts his loss at about 50. None were killed. The inhabitants along the beach came in with the Regiment. The loss of the Rebels has been over stated, but it was undoubtedly large.

LADIES' GAITER BOOTS.

A little glove shoe up my heart as thick as the ocean, A snow-white mudlin, when it fits, makes many a curious notion. All sorts of lady Xins thrill my feelings, as they'd order, But little female gaiter boots are death and nothing shorter!

And just to put you on your guard, I'll give you, short and brief, A small hotel experience Which filled my heart with grief: Last summer, at the Pavilion Hotel, I stopped a week or more, And marked two "boot-ees" every morn Before my neighbor's door: Two boots with patent leather tips, Two boots which seemed to say, "An angel trots around in us!" They stole my heart away; And often in my nightly dreams They swept before my face, A lady growing out of them, As flowers grow from a vase. But ah! one morn I saw a sight Which struck me like a stone, Some other name was on the book Those boots were not alone! A great tall pair of other boots Was standing by their side, And off they walked one afternoon And with them walked—a bride.

Ladies, comment is unnecessary: Those Gaiter Boots came from J. C. PAGE, Where can be found at all times a large assortment of Ladies, Misses and Children's Boots and Shoes of the latest French Imported Work.

DR. MOLLIS' CHAMBERLAIN'S PAIN-KILLER

AN AGENT AND STOMACH PREPARATION OF IRON purged of Oxygen and Carbon by combination in Hydrogen, and sanctioned by the highest Medical Authorities both in Europe and the United States, and prescribed in their practice.

The experience of thousands daily proves that no preparation of Iron can be compared with it. Impurities of the blood, depression of vital energy, pale and otherwise sickly complexions, indicate its necessity in almost every conceivable case.

Inexhaustible in all maladies in which it has been tried, it has proved absolutely curative in each of the following complaints, viz:

In Debility, Nervous Affections, Emission, Dyspepsia, Consumption, Diarrhoea, Indigestion, Catarrhs, Hemorrhoids, Tuberculosis, Salt Rheum, Malaria, Menstruation, Whites, Chlorosis, Liver Complaints, Chronic Headache, Rheumatism, Intermittent Fevers, Pimples on the Face, &c.

In cases of General Debility, whether the result of acute disease or of the continued diminution of nervous and muscular energy from chronic complaints, the use of this restorative has proved successful to an extent which no description nor written attestation would render credible. Invalids so long bed-ridden as to become forgotten in their own neighborhoods, have suddenly reappeared in the busy world as if just returned from protracted travel in a distant land.

Some very singular instances of this kind are attested of female sufferers, emaciated victims of apparent marasmus, sanguineous exhaustion, critical changes, and that emphysematous and dyspeptic persons, who to air and exercise for which they were not adapted.

In Nervous affections of all kinds, and for reasons familiar to medical men, the operation of this preparation of iron must necessarily be salutary. For, unlike iron, it is not a tonic, without being exciting and overbearing; and gently, regularly and even in the most obstinate cases of costiveness without ever being a gastric purgative, or inducing a disagreeable sensation.

It is this latter property, among others, which makes it so remarkably efficient and permanent a remedy for females, upon which it also appears to exert a beneficial action, by dispelling the local tendency which forms them.

In Dyspepsia, innumerable as are its causes, a single box of this Chamberlain's Pills has often sufficed for the most habitual cases, including the indigestion of children. In unchecked Diarrhoea, even when advanced to dysentery, continued, emaciating, and apparently unmanageable, the effects have been equally decisive and astonishing.

In the local pains, loss of flesh and strength, debility, cough, and remittent febrile, which generally indicate incipient Consumption, this remedy has allayed the alarm of friends and physicians, a several very gratifying and interesting instances.

In Scrophulous Tubercles, this medicated iron has had far more than the good effect of the most cautiously balanced preparations of iodine, without any of their well known liabilities.

The attention of females cannot be too confidently invited to this remedy and restorative, in the cases peculiarly affecting them.

In Rheumatism, both chronic and inflammatory—in the latter, however, more decidedly—it has been invariably well reported, both as alleviating pain and reducing the swellings and stiffness of the joints and muscles.

In Intermittent Fevers it must necessarily be a great remedy and energetic, and its progress in the new settlements of the West, will probably be one of high renown and usefulness.

No remedy has ever been discovered in the whole history of medicine, which exerts such prompt, happy, and fully restorative effects. Good appetite, complete digestion, rapid acquisition of strength, with an unusual disposition for active and cheerful exercise immediately follow its use.

Put up in neat flat metal boxes containing 50 pills, price 50 cents per box; for sale by druggists and dealers. Will be sent free to any address on receipt of the price. All letters, orders, &c., should be addressed to R. B. LOWRE & CO., General Agents, N. Y. 25191 F. E. Smith, Agent.

DR. COLBY'S
ANTI-COSTIVE & TONIC PILLS.

A CANADIAN REMEDY For Costiveness, Irregularity and Debility of the Digestive Organs, Inducing Headache, Lassitude, Nervousness, General Prostration of the Mind and Body, Paralysis, &c.

A moment's reflection ought to convince a sensible man of the folly and danger of constantly dosing with Cathartic Medicines. The practice is pernicious and suicidal. An experience of forty years has taught me that the constantly increasing evils of indigestion are fearfully aggravated by the too free use of Cathartics. American people are fast becoming a nation of dyspeptics by their artificial modes of life. Drastic Cathartics increase the irritability, and prostrate the strength of the digestive organs.

The Pills now offered are especially designed to allay this irritability, and at the same time to invigorate and strengthen all the functions of digestion, while they are gently laxative. They are anodyne, tonic and laxative. They are so mild and invigorating that one is not reminded of any disagreeable effects that he has taken medicine.

Business Men, Students, Professional Men, Females, and all persons leading a confined or sedentary life, should try them.

The undersigned Physicians, cheerfully certify to the high professional standing of Dr. Colby of Stanstead, one of the oldest and best Physicians, and to the excellent qualities of his "Anti-Costive and Tonic Pills," which we have used in our practice, and highly approve.
